UNITED STATES GEOGRAPHIC BOARD

APPROVED

Adopted name Corcoran, Mount

Thing named and location mountain, altitude 13,733 feet, on the east boundary of Sequoia National Park and summit of the Sierra Nevada, Inyo and Tulare Counties, California, about one mile south of Mt. Whitney, near lat. 36°32'N., long. 118°15'W.

Names	Authorities
	The decision of February 2, 1891, restated in detail many years later, applying the name "Corcoran" to a mountain located on the Sierra Nevada, Inyo and Tulare Counties, California, five miles southeast of Mt. Whitney, is hereby vacated.

Disapproved by the Board 6/7/33

Local usage

None

Submitted by request of National Park Service

Date November 2, 1932

This card prepared by Frank Bond

Recommendation of Executive Committee

Corcoran, Mount

Disapproved

9—2406 U. S. GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE: 1929